DETAILED ACTION

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1-8 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

(c) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

Claims 1, 2, 4, and 7-13 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Trapp (US 5,861,027). See figures 1, 2, 7, and 9. Trapp discloses an expandable stent (1) comprising annular segments formed by struts (5) and transitional sections (peaks, valleys 10), adjacent annular segments coupled by connectors (11), wherein every other transitional section of end annular segments has a widened head (6) that projects axially and has a convex front (8) and concave throat (7), wherein the concave throats are configured to intermesh with adjacent transitional sections (10) in the initial compressed state (fig.1, 2).

Claims 1, 2, 4-7, and 9-13 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Burgermeister (US 2005/0004657 A1). See figures 4a and 5. Burgermeister discloses an expandable stent (200) comprising annular segments formed by struts (210, 220) and transitional sections (peaks valleys), adjacent annular segments coupled by connectors (250), wherein every other transitional section of end annular segments has a widened head (peak or valley of b) that projects axially and has a convex front and concave throat (seen in fig.5), wherein the concave throats are configured to intermesh with adjacent transitional section in the initial compressed state (fig.5).

Conclusion

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
